RECEIVE FIRST LOAD OF CEMENT THIS MORNING

McDermitt Brothers, of Gettysburg, received their first carload of cement this morning and resumed operations after a three-week shutdown because of the cement workers' strike.

Leo McDermitt, a member of the firm, said the shipment came from a "reopened plant in this area" and was the second carload shipped out after operations were resumed.

Clyde O. Garber, Adams County superintendent of highways, said this morning that his department would continue with the use of cement as soon as their contractors in Gettysburg and Hanover supply the material.

Patching Held Up
Garber said that highway patching on the Lincoln Highway, both east and west of Gettysburg, had been held up because of the strike. Another project that was discontinued because of the strike was the construction of a larger bridge about one-half mile west of McSherrystown on the road to Mount Pleasant.

Blacktopping of a mile and one-tenth of the Lincoln Highway east of Gettysburg has been progressing during the past week. Garber said he expected to complete the base course today and that he expected the wearing surface to be completed within three days.

ALLETOWN, Pa. — Construction engineers across the nation moved today to get major building projects rolling again as a crippling strike in the cement industry neared an end.

Death Toll In Mexico's Worst Earthquake Mounts To 66 Today

MEXICO CITY — A crew of 500 men dug into the ruins of an apartment building today seeking the last victims of Sunday's earthquake.

The five-story apartment house which crumbled into a pile of concrete and dust was the worst death trap of the 50 old buildings that collapsed in the capital.

By early today 32 bodies had been pulled from the rubble and hospital. This brought the number of known dead in Mexico City to 52 and the total for the country to 66. All were Mexicans.

There were unconfirmed reports that a family on the lower floor of the apartment house had been having a large party at the time of the quake. Officials believed more bodies would be found.

Eleven persons were removed alive from the building. One woman was pulled out yesterday after being pinned under a pile of wreckage for 28 hours. A mattress which fell on her had saved her.

Other crews were busy demolishing dangerously damaged structures.

Reports from other sections of the country showed the only major damage from the quake was in a narrow area running south from Mexico City to the Pacific coast resort of Acapulco.

Most cities in the quake zone frequented by American tourists escaped without damage or casualties. These included Taxco, Guadalajara, Morelia, Toluca, Puebla, Oaxaca and Veracruz.

Even in Acapulco, where three persons were killed, damage was relatively minor.

USE MORE GAS IN STEEL MILLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—An officer of Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., Pittsburgh, testified today that the July, 1956, steel strike resulted in increased use of natural gas in western Pennsylvania steel mills.

C. A. Massa, vice president of the utility, told the Public Utility Commission that steel companies kept their blast furnaces warm with natural gas rather than with gas usually produced from coke ovens.

"We made no credit adjustment on this," he testified. "Our sales to Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. were quite variable, varying from month to month depending on their fuel requirements."

Massa testified at a commission hearing on the application of Manufacturers for a rate increase of $6,473,000 for 246,500 consumers in 25 counties. The commission suspended the increase until Nov. 12, 1957, for an investigation.

Heavy rain also fell in New York's northern Hudson Valley, in central Massachusetts and in sections of Connecticut and New Hampshire.

Many other areas across the country got heavy rain yesterday, last night and early this morning.

WEDLER SIGNS CONFESSION IN SHEPPARD CASE

DELAND, Fla. (AP)—Donald J. Wedler today signed a statement that he killed Marilyn Sheppard, a Cleveland attorney for Dr. Samuel Sheppard reported.

William Corrigan said the 23-year-old Florida convict "willingly signed the statement in the presence of Sheriff's Deputies Howard Demott and Jack Lynady."

The attorney's belief in Wedler's story is directly opposed to conclusions of Cleveland police officials after they talked with the prisoner a week ago.

Opinions Differ
Dr. Samuel Gerber, coroner of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, and James McArthur, former chief of Cleveland detectives, said Wedler knew only as much about the sensational July 4, 1954, slaying case as he might have read in newspapers and magazines.

He knew no details, Gerber and McArthur said.

Corrigan, on the other hand, said "I think this guy did it."

The lawyer who defended Dr. Sheppard in the trial which resulted in his conviction for the slaying of his wife and a life term, said:

"The confession of this man fits in with so many of the details with which we are familiar and convinces us beyond doubt that Donald Joseph Wedler is guilty of murder."

"We plan to move immediately in the State of Ohio to bring this case to a successful conclusion."

"There's nobody who can set aside a confession of this nature with all its possibilities."

How Corrigan would bring a murder charge against Wedler before a grand jury for indictment was not disclosed. Such a step would be necessary to bring him to trial in Ohio.

PENN STATE RAISES TUITION

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania State University today announced an increase in student fees and room and board charges, effective at opening of the fall term, and said it was due to mounting costs.

Student fees will be increased from $280 to $350 a year for full-time resident students and from $580 to $750 for out-of-state students. Graduate, special, two-year agricultural and Mont Alto students will pay comparable increases.

Basic room and board charges, including dormitory counseling services, will go up from approximately $690 to $762 a year for men students and $690 to $780 a year for women, the figures varying according to the type of accommodation.

"Our general aim in this matter," said President Eric A. Walker, "is to effect a fee schedule that will be consistent with our commitment to provide an inexpensive education for the college-age youth of the commonwealth, and still permit Penn State to carry out the services and functions expected of it as the state university."

UNITED STATES JOINS NEW UNIT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has formally become a member of the International Atomic Energy Agency, an outgrowth of President Eisenhower's 1953 "atoms for peace" proposals.

Eisenhower signed the pact yesterday, enrolling this nation in the agency. His signature formally brought IAEA into being since its establishment depended on the ratification by three major atom powers.

Russia and Britain were the first two major powers to adopt the pact. The United States was the 22nd nation to ratify the plan. The Senate approved it June 18, 1957.

Under the international agency plan, the President may enter into agreements with the agency whereby uranium 235 would be made available for distribution in other countries for peaceful purposes.

SOME SHOWERS ARE FORECAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's midsummer weather showed only minor changes today, hot and humid in many areas and forecasts of showers and thunderstorms over most sections.

The Great Lakes region and the Pacific Coast states appeared the only areas which were expected to have dry weather.

Welcome, beneficial rains soaked sections of the drought-stricken Northeast yesterday but many areas got only sprinkles. The more than one inch of rain which fell in eastern Long Island saved crops and was described as a million-dollar downpour.

Heavy rain also fell in New York's northern Hudson Valley, in central Massachusetts and in sections of Connecticut and New Hampshire.

Many other areas across the country got heavy rain yesterday, last night and early this morning.

ATOM'S PEACE USES WILL PAY WEAPONS COST

HAZELTON, Pa. (P)—An atomic energy commissioner predicted today that savings from peaceful uses of radioisotopes will soon offset the cost of the nation's nuclear weapons program.

Dr. Willard F. Libby said "within three to five years—probably more nearly three, sometime in 1960—Isotopes probably will be paying the whole way for the atom."

That means, he added, "the American people and the Western world will get their atomic armament and their atomic power development costs all free—in the sense that the benefits of five billion dollars annual savings in industrial processing and agricultural costs are pretty well distributed among the taxpayers."

Dedicates Plant
Libby's comments were contained in a speech prepared for the dedication of a new plant of the Beryllium Corp.

"Already, with our present 500 million dollars' annual savings for a direct output of about three million annually, isotopes are giving a fair return on the total investment in the whole atomic energy project," he said.

The nuclear weapons stockpile and atom power developments, Libby continued, "are beginning to be borne by the largely unused but very benevolent isotopes."

Isotopes are different forms of the same element, and they have different characteristics. Some radio isotopes are byproducts of atomic reactors.

Libby listed several isotopes which he said would drop sharply in price with widespread use.

Radioactive carbon, for example, now sells for $22,000 per curie Libby said. He said a price of $110 per curie might become possible with volume production. The curie is a measure of radiation.

Sees New Uses
Libby predicted vast new uses for radioisotopes in the years ahead.

"The known applications of radioisotopes techniques have by no means saturated the market," he said.

"In the field of the atom-for-peace program, isotopes will play a very great role, for they can be put to work immediately without extensive training and heavy investment, and can serve for years to convince people the world over of the atom's great promise for peaceful uses."

President Asper conducted the business meeting and reports were read by the secretary and treasurer. Games were played and awards given.

Next year's reunion will be held at St. Ignatius' Catholic Church, Buchanan Valley, the last Sunday in July.

Lightning Destroys Barn Monday Night

Fire destroyed a frame barn and damaged two other buildings on the property of Mrs. Mary E. Arendt, East Berlin R. 3, after the structures were struck by lightning during an electrical storm Monday night. Loss was estimated at about $10,000.

Lost in the blaze were about 300 bales of straw and a number of farm equipment pieces. Neighbors saved a truck and tractor. Damaged were a wagon shed and a garage.

Firemen from East Berlin and Abbotstown fought the blaze with water from booster tanks and a nearby creek. The farm is located about one and one-half miles east of East Berlin. The fire broke out at 9:20 p.m.

RECEIVE FIRST

worth more than a billion dollars. Tens of thousands of idled construction workers now can hope to start working again.

The log jam was broken yesterday with ratification of an agreement between one of the nation's largest cement producers and the United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers.

Other Plants Resume

Workers at the nearby Horthampton plant of Universal Atlas Cement Co. accepted the union-company pact and the first shift reported at noon. Other plants are falling in line.

Regional Director Robert W. Donahoe of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said he feels production in the Lehigh Valley, this major cement-producing area, will resume almost fully by tomorrow.

A spokesman for the industry said supplies of cement "can be in the hands of contractors and builders by Monday at the latest."

71 Plants Were Closed

Other contractors said it will be two to four weeks before construction can resume its normal summertime pace.

Observers said most of the remaining 9,500 strikers in the nation's idled cement plants should be back to work by the end of the week. A total of 71 plants were strikebound.

"Technically, the strike is over," said Donahoe. "It is just a drawing up the agreements between the striking union members and the firms involved."

The populous Northeast probably felt the effects of the strike most of all, although nearly all construction was hampered.

Many Billions Lost

Work on half a billion dollars worth of projects was held up in New York State alone, including New York's new toll road, the thruway.

In Pennsylvania, a quarter billion dollars worth of building was delayed. The strike began on a small scale May 15, then slowly spread until 16,000 cement workers had left their jobs.

This, basically, is the Universal Atlas agreement that is setting the pattern for the industry: a 13.6-cent hourly increase, of which 11 cents is across-the-board and the remaining 2.6 goes into premium pay for various job categories. Ten cents of the boost is retroactive to May 1, when the contract expired. The average wage before settlement was $1.74 to $2.37 an hour.

One Firm Surrenders

The retroactive section is what opened the floodgates to a general agreement. Companies have balked at retroactivity, but Universal Atlas gave in.

But to get it, the union had to surrender on another demand. The company still is permitted, against the union's original wishes, to subcontract work where it feels the labor can be done more efficiently and economically outside the plant.

Besides Northampton, other unionized Universal plants are at Hudson, N.Y.; Leeds, Ala.; Independence, Kan., and Hannibal, Mo. Universal's plant at Waco, Tex., also organized by the Cement Workers, is operating under a contract extension that expires Aug. 1.

Other leading companies where union and management personnel met throughout the country with optimistic outlooks today are Penn-Dixie, Lehigh Portland, Lone Star, Alpha Portland, General Portland and Ideal Cement.

Former Senator George Improves

VIENNA, Ga. (P)—Former Sen. Walter F. George, critically ill from a coronary occlusion, appeared somewhat improved today.

His physician, Dr. J. L. Malloy said the 79-year-old George definitely had a better night after midnight. He required no sedation after midnight, was taking fluids this morning and "looks better."

George, President Eisenhower's special ambassador to NATO, was reported in grave condition yesterday and growing progressively weaker. He had difficulty breathing and was receiving oxygen continuously.

SAYS DELAWARE RIVER CHANNEL WORK WILL PAY

WASHINGTON (P)—Rep. Curtin (R-Pa.), eagerly awaiting Senate approval of a bill boosting by two million dollars this year's appropriation for deepening the Delaware River Channel, said today that the extra fund "will pay for itself."

"I'm for economy and cutting the budget wherever possible," Curtin told a newsmen, "but the sooner the job is done on the Delaware River the sooner it will pay off."

The extra two million dollars, boosting the appropriation for the year to 11 millions, was placed in the bill by a Senate appropriations subcommittee on public works.

Await Senate Action

Final Senate action on the project is one of many matters awaiting final resolution of the civil rights controversy.

The House-passed appropriation for the deepening project totaled only nine million dollars, although the bill as reported by the House Appropriations Committee stipulated that the deepening job—between Philadelphia and Trenton, N.J.—be carried on to a 40-foot depth.

The Bureau of the Budget previously had restricted the project to an interim depth of 35 feet, much to the ire of Delaware Valley representatives—political, civic and commercial.

Curtin, Sen. Martin (R-Pa.), Philadelphia's Mayor Richardson Dilworth, Pennsylvania State Commerce Secretary William R. Davlin and a host of others appeared at congressional hearings to urge carrying through the project to 40 feet.

MAJORITY BACKS MODERATES IN ARGENTINA VOTE

BUENOS AIRES (P)—Argentina's moderate forces backing Provisional President Pedro Aramburu's drive for constitutional reform were sure today of a comfortable majority in the constituent assembly. But political leaders still argued the meaning of the election results.

The arguments ranged from victory claims by anti-reform forces and shouts of triumph by Peronist diehards to assurances from Aramburu that the balloting Sunday proved Argentina's will to live democratically.

Tallying of 8,231,688 votes—more than 80 per cent of the total registered voters—showed that 2,088,140, or just under 25 per cent, had heeded ex-dictator Juan Peron's command to cast blank ballots.

Short Of Prediction

This fell far short of Peron's boast from Caracas that 75 per cent of the Argentines would answer his call. But those who did still constituted the country's largest single faction, still faithful to the outlawed Peronist party and its exiled leader.

Close behind in second place was the middle-of-the-road Radical Wing led by Ricardo Balbin. It had polled 2,067,299 votes on a pledge to amend the 1853 constitution as Aramburu has demanded, to cut the executive power so that no dictator can take over again.

3 Seats Doubtful

Votes for smaller parties brought the proamendment total to more than four million and promised the reform forces at least 120 seats in the 206-member assembly, which will meet Sept. 1.

Parties which had pledged to resist amendment of the constitution seemed sure of 82 seats. Three places were still in doubt. The leading anti-amendment faction, the intransigent Radicals led by fiery nationalist Arturo Frondizi, ran third with 1,729,969 votes.

Frondizi, the earliest announced candidate for next February's presidential election, had openly wooed Peronist support.

AUTOS TRAPPED BY OIL TANKERS

Damage totaled $125 to two automobiles which Monday noon found themselves "sandwiched" between two oil tankers.

As state police reported it, an oil tanker was slowly climbing a hill on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road, one mile north of York Springs. Behind it were ten automobiles in line, slowed by the tanker ahead.

Paul Henry Anderson, 28, Annapolis R. D. Md., driving an oil tanker tractor-trailer owned by Thomas Howard Johnson, Baltimore, driving south, came upon the slow moving southbound procession and was unable to slow his tractor trailer in time.

It slammed into the rear of the last car in the line, causing $100 damage to the vehicle owned by William James Black, 35, Oakford, Pa., and forcing Black's car into the vehicle immediately ahead of it, operated by George Lamonte Graw, 56, Orlando, Fla. Damage to Graw's car was $25.

Total damage to Anderson's tanker was $10.

School Directors Will Face Broadway

He assured the directors it was the only "frill" in the drawings.

All-purpose room and classroom walls will be of concrete blocks—painted—as an economy measure.

Will Face Broadway

The big "L" will face toward E. Broadway with the lobby, office, teachers' room and health and music storage rooms in the center of the building where the two wings join. One wing will extend southwestward and the other to the southeast. There was some discussion about which wing should be assigned to the three lower grades with lavatories in each classroom and the architect will be re-study that and other suggestions made Monday evening.

Joining in the discussion of the plans were about 20 directors and a half dozen elementary school teachers and Richard A. Polkenroth, elementary supervisor and Keefeauver School principal.

It was brought out that the building will reach within 150 feet of the Harrisburg Rd. and about 85 feet of Broadway at the nearest points.

A covered area, sidewalks and a system of driveways will facilitate the loading and unloading of the 20 or more buses which may visit the building in a school day. Details of the traffic handling have not been worked out. A 150-foot covered area at the front entrance will provide shelter for bus pupils and the area may be enlarged before plans are complete.

Costs Not Discussed

Assisting Mr. Williams in explaining the plans was Herbert Anderson, also from Bucharts. Dr. R. D. Wickert, board president, presided at the meeting.

Costs were not discussed Monday evening but in the earlier stages of the planning the directors were told that a 20-room building with cafeteria, kitchen and assembly room would cost $750,000 to $800,000, about the cost of the Keefeauver building completed two years ago.

Meeting dates were announced for two board committees Monday evening by Superintendent H. Edgar Riegle. The teacher committee will meet Thursday, August 8, and the property committee on Wednesday, August 7. Both meetings will be at 8:30 p.m.

Franklin Twp. directors were not involved in Monday's meeting because they are not members of the jointure at the elementary level. All other districts were represented.

The next regular meeting of the joint board is scheduled for Monday, August 12.

DAIRIES ADMIT VIOLATIONS OF DELIVERY CODE

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Eight Greater Philadelphia area dairies today admitted Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission action following their admission that they violated commission regulations.

The eight pleaded guilty or admitted the "factual information" presented against them yesterday at a commission hearing on charges they served customers more than once every 48 hours or gave away too many samples.

Charges against a ninth dairy, Maplecroft Farm Dairies, Valley Forge, were held in abeyance. The company said the employee who is alleged to have violated the commission rules is no longer employed by them.

The commission has the power to suspend or revoke licenses of violators.

Previously the commission had brought charges in cases of such violation under the criminal code.

But Commission Secretary Glenn R. Spangler said the hearings were held instead because "we feel that hearings of this type are a better way to stop daily deliveries, and thereby ultimately to spare the consumers an increase in milk prices."

He said the penalties the commission would impose would set a precedent for treatment in future cases of this type.

Plead Guilty

Pleading guilty to the charges yesterday were John J. Dillon, a Norristown dealer for Abbot's Dairies; Martin Century Farms, Lansdale; Sealest-Supple Division of National Dairy Products, Inc.; Turner-Wescott, Inc.; Nel-

4 Escaped Women Arrested In Field

MUNCY, Pa. (P)—The last of six escapees from the Muncy Industrial School for Women have been captured by state police.

Four women were captured last night in a field adjoining the institution. Earlier, two other escapees were recaptured.

The superintendent of the home, Miss Cella Gray, said the six women escaped Sunday after overpowering a woman matron.

Those recaptured last night were Anita Sanderson, 29, of Pittsburgh; Betty Zechman, 32, of Boone, N.C.; Emma Jane Jennings, 20, of Pittsburgh, and Jacqueline Powers, 17, of Philadelphia.

Captured Sunday five hours after they escaped were 16-year-old Rose Marie Pelligrino of Pittsburgh and Sally Piertoni, 16, of Scranton.

son's Dairies, Inc., Norristown; Levegood Dairies, Pottstown, and Bechtel Dairies, Royersford.

The violations occurred mostly in new developments in the King of Prussia, Bridgeport and Norristown areas.

The eighth dairy, which did not plead guilty but admitted the "factual information" against it was Harbison's Dairies of Philadelphia.

Foremost Dairies of Philadelphia denied extra deliveries but conceded it gave away too many samples. Foremost attributed this to overzealous salesmen.

Levegood was charged only with violating the delivery limit. The others were charged also with giving out more than one free sample.

Dairies may offer to compromise any suspension by paying $50 a day for each day of the penalty but the commission is not obligated to accept such an offer.

Report Dulles Will Stress Ike's 'Open Skies' Inspection Proposal

LONDON (P)—In London less than 24 hours, Secretary of State Dulles today was deep in talks on the future of the East-West disarmament negotiations. He appeared to be giving special emphasis to President Eisenhower's open skies plan.

He had dinner last night with Harold Stassen, chief U.S. delegate to the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee now meeting in London, and other leading U.S. representatives in Western Europe.

Later he met with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. Speaking to reporters, the secretary particularly cited the open skies plan for aerial inspection in certain areas on both sides of the Iron Curtain to prevent massing of men and armaments for an attack.

Delay Magnifies Problem

"If it be demonstrated that the danger of surprise attack can and will be reduced," he said, "it should be more possible to make progress in reducing the burden of armaments and solving the grave political problems which endanger peace."

Dulles recalled that Eisenhower had proposed the open skies inspection procedure at the Geneva Big Four summit conference two years ago.

"Every month that passes without agreement magnifies the problem of disarmament," he said.

Questions Red Areas

The Russians already have offered to open wide areas of Communist territory, including some in the Soviet Union, to aerial and ground inspection if the West will do likewise. The question now is just which areas on both sides of the Iron Curtain would be included.

Unless Dulles decides otherwise, Stassen plans to start giving the Disarmament subcommittee the details of the newest U.S. air inspection proposals this week.

Three alternative territories reportedly will be offered:

Exchange Plan

1. The whole of the United States would be opened up in exchange for the whole of Russia.
2. The Arctic Circle area previously proposed as a trial ground would be expanded to include Alaska and the Aleutians and corresponding parts of East Siberia, Kamchatka and the Kurile Island group.

3. A large slice of Western Europe, including part of Britain, would be offered, but only in exchange for a bigger portion of Eastern Europe and Soviet territory. The Western contention is that more Russian ground should be opened to inspectors because it is less thickly developed and settled than Western Europe.

EASTON, Pa. (P)—Coroner George Kametz says that a Rockville Center, N.Y., man whose body was found in a lake at Camp Walcott yesterday apparently had suffered a heart attack and fallen into the water.

The man was identified as Mark Marcoss, 50. He had gone for a walk from the resort, about 13 miles north of here, just a short time before his body was discovered.

Today's Talk

I marvel over what my fingers perform. They type these Talks. They wash my face. They build things — some so intricate as to astound others who have not the unborn skill of others. Think of the hand-loom that fingers so expertly create! Think of the musician who has trained his fingers to fill the air with melodies that stir the soul!

Not until we lose some, or all, of these fingers of ours do we realize their majesty and miraculous ability. The orator throws his fingers into the air to give evidence of what is fomenting in his mind. Note the fingers of a mother fondling her babe, each finger with a touch of love to it; and note the tiny fingers of the babe, one of God's miracles.

Think of the immortal sayings in books that have been written with fingers — fingers writing love, hope and comfort as assets in the world! Every day billions of fingers perform in every activity of life, from the task of building cities to servicing the millions that live in them. Then think of the immortal masterpieces for all time, and all with God-given fingers.

There are fingers in nature, forever at their job of repair. I marvel how these great hemlocks outside my summer cabin have sent out fingers into all directions as to support the huge trees that need them to lock themselves to the rocky earth. Nature's thoughts are forever in action. Its great branches are its fingers, reaching out to commune with the sunlight. What an inspiring earth this is, in which we live and have our being!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Neighbors"

SEES "LONG JOB" IN PLANNING OF FEDERAL ROUTE

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Highways Department expects it will be "a long, drawn-out job" for two consulting engineering firms to plan a route for the Sharon - Stroudsburg Keystone Shortway.

"It's going to take them a long time to establish the best route—we're a long way from that now," a department spokesman said.

He named the two consultants as Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, Inc., of Harrisburg; and Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester, Pa. The consulting engineers to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. Agreements with both firms were made "soon after" the May 23 federal approval of a shortway inclusion in the interstate system.

Needs Approval

Once the two firms arrive at a recommendation it will be submitted to the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads. Only when it gains federal approval can design work begin.

"There is absolutely no firm route now—there can't be, no matter what anyone says," the department emphasized. A recent report on a "route" given by a department field employee was termed "simple conjecture—because no one has anything to talk about."

The two engineering firms must first fly over the central Pennsylvania area to determine possible routes. Then contour maps will be worked out. After ground inspections the most likely route will be chosen and detailed maps drawn.

Estimate $259,000,000

The final cost estimate, as submitted to federal officials by the department, was 269 million dollars for the 290-mile road. The federal government will pay 90 percent, the state the remaining 10 percent.

Despite earlier word from B.D. Tallamy, federal highway administrator of the Public Roads Bureau, no description of the general route approved for the highway has been forwarded, the state agency reports.

On May 23, in announcing federal approval Tallamy telegraphed Joseph J. Lawler, highways secretary, "a letter of route description approval will be issued soon."

Name Points

However, the department says it has received only a letter establishing "the Youngstown, Ohio, vicinity and the Delaware Water Gap vicinity" as the "control points."

The original Tallamy telegram gave this description for the highway:

From a point on the Ohio-Penn-

Twenty-four of the injured still were hospitalized today, two in critical condition.

The derailed train had left Montreal Friday night.

There has never been any official estimate on when construction work may be started or finished but some sources have predicted it would be possible to let the first contracts by 1958. Construction work could take several years. Under the Federal Aid Highway Act construction of the interstate system is given top priority to be completed within 13-15 years from July, 1956.

WOULD RESUME AFTER 7 YEARS

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP)—Seven years after diplomatic relations between the United States and Bulgaria were severed in mutual recriminations, Premier Anton Yugov wants them resumed.

He said on Sunday that "we consider the restoration of normal diplomatic relations would benefit both countries."

Relations were broken when Bulgaria accused U.S. Minister Donald Heath of plotting with Titoists and demanded his withdrawal. The charge has not been revoked although those then accused of Titoism have since been declared framed.

The United States replied with the charge that Bulgarians working for the legation had been imprisoned, mistreated and even killed at least one is believed still in prison.

The Communist leader said Bulgaria would like to exchange books, movies and students with the United States once normal relations are re-established.

Rain, Wind, Hail Hit Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rain fell on Sunday in the Philadelphia area but not enough to relieve the drought causing thousands of dollars in crop damages.

The rain came in scattered downpours, some accompanied by lightning, high wind and hail. Wires were knocked down, trees felled and roads momentarily flooded.

Henry P. Adams, head of the U.S. Weather Station here, said what is needed now is a "good northeast, a slow, steady rain that will sink in instead of running off on the hard ground."

Tries On Handcuffs, Man Jailed For Fine

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Haywood Butler is in Moyamensing Prison today because he's just naturally curious.

Butler says he found a pair of handcuffs yesterday while rummaging in the cupboard of an apartment he had recently moved into. Wondering if they worked, he snapped them on. They worked perfectly and Butler hadn't found a key either.

He went to the police station to have them removed. While a patrolman was getting the handcuffs off, another policeman made a routine check of the records. It was found Butler hadn't paid a $125 fine given him in Municipal Court this week for carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Butler couldn't raise the money and is in prison until he does.

REQUESTS CURB ON OIL IMPORTS; SOLONS DIVIDED

By CHARLES C. HASLET

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new government effort to limit oil imports drew praise today from oil state congressmen but howls from New England senators.

A voluntary import curb which the White House said "could lead to mandatory controls" if it is violated was asked by President Eisenhower yesterday. He called for a 10 per cent curf in oil imports by companies east of the Rockies. It is designed to assure a high rate of domestic oil production which could be needed for national defense.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) said a reduction of South American oil shipments to New England "will surely result in a price rise in the near future," and added, "In fact, that is the purpose of the order."

Sees "Favoritism"

Sen. Payne (R-Maine) called it "shocking favoritism for the oil industry which already enjoys preferential tax privileges denied other industries."

Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) expressed hope that oil users "are not penalized by price increases or restricted supplies" under the program, but said he would demand "immediate remedial action" if it is needed.

On the other hand, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said, "This is a long overdue action which should strengthen the national security," as well as "provide some relief for our hard-pressed domestic producers."

The report recommended that established importing companies other than in the Far West be requested to cut crude oil imports he decides it is necessary.

Pilot Changes His Mind, Upsets C.A.A.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Ralph Tate of Pittsburgh, Pa., changed his mind — and threw the Southeastern Seaboard into a tizzy.

Tate, piloting a Piper plane from Pittsburgh, left Winston-Salem yesterday noon, after refueling, on a scheduled flight to Charlotte . . . and disappeared.

Civil Aeronautics Administration officials radioed back and forth seeking news of the missing plane, finally alerted the Air Force to ready search parties.

Then at 9 p.m. Tate phoned CAA headquarters here. Said he'd changed his mind and decided to go to Rock Hill, S.C., instead. He'd forgotten to notify headquarters of the switch, he said.

Patterson Hammers Jackson For TKO In Tenth Round; Next Title Fight With Rademacher Aug. 22

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson today planned the luxury of a day and a half of loafing following his butchering of Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson in the title fight now called the "Slaughter on Eighth Avenue."

Then the champ will resume training for his "fantastic" title defense against Pete Rademacher, a balding, 1956 Olympic heavyweight champion, at Seattle Aug. 22.

For his "shutout" 10th round technical knockout of the game, tamed Hurricane at the Polo Grounds last night, Patterson earned a guaranteed $175,000. For his defense against Rademacher, who never has fought pro, the fast-striking titleholder will collect a $250,000 guarantee.

This adds up to $425,000 for two fights within 24 days for the one-time wayward boy who is following in the footsteps of the fabulous Joe Louis on boxing's golden trail.

Weighing the heaviest of his career at 184 pounds and punching with blinding speed, Patterson, 22, scored his 19th straight victory and may have ended the fistic career of the fighter known as the "Animal" in boxing circles.

They call Jackson "Animal" because of his ability to absorb punishment and his tremendous stamina. But he took too much for any beast before referee Ruby Goldstein ended the rout at 1:52 of the 10th with the protesting Jackson, 25, wobbling but on his feet.

Floored Three Times
The 192½ pound challenger from New York, had been dropped three times previously, and had been rocked from head to toe in almost every round by Patterson's violent bursts to Jackson's battered and bleeding face.

There was some confusion at the ringside over the counts of the knockdowns but referee Goldstein said afterwards Jackson was up at the count of one in the first round, three in the second round and four in the ninth.

Goldstein and judges Bill Recht and Joe Agnello all had Patterson ahead by perfect 9-0 scores until the rout was halted. The AP also had it 9-0 with only the fifth round close.

Nothing But Courage
Perhaps the most devastating blow Patterson landed was a thumping left hook to the body in the fourth that doubled over Jackson and grimacing in pain. Jackson offered practically nothing but courage.

Asked why he hadn't gone to the body more often, Patterson said Jackson's "elbows made him hard to hit in the body."

How about Rademacher?
"Any man that's been fighting for 10 years in the amateurs is a pro in my book," replied Floyd slowly. "A man who wins an Olympic title has to be good to beat the world's best amateurs. I'm not taking him lightly."

Rademacher Watches
Rademacher, who watched the national telecast—only the New York area was blacked out—in Columbus, Ga., said that "I haven't changed my opinion that I can beat him. We saw a few things I have to work hard on."

Broadway bookmakers tabbed the Seattle fight as a 10-1 and "out" betting proposition, meaning they will take only bets on Rademacher. Patterson was a 5-1 choice over Jackson and was 8-5 to knock him out.

Nevertheless Seattle observers said the fight likely will sell out Sick Stadium's 25,000 seats and gross close to $400,000 for the Pacific Northwest's first heavyweight title fight. The matching of the world pro king and the world amateur ruler has been called a "fantastic idea" by Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager.

Olympic Winner Too
Patterson, a 17-year old, won the Olympic 165-pound crown at Helsinki in 1952.

Patterson will meet with the press at noon today, then rest until Wednesday when he will return to his Greenwood Lake, N. Y., camp, to resume work. He said he plans to leave for Seattle, Aug. 12.

Jackson, who struggled to break loose from referee Goldstein's grip when the fight was halted, muttered "the referee had no right to stop it."

"Legs Were Lazy"
If he really meant it, he must have been the only one in the overall crowd of 18,101 who felt that way deep down. The illiterate fighter has the body of a full grown heavyweight but the mind of a small boy.

He admitted he was hurt in the first round.

"My legs were lazy," he muttered. "They gave me away."

Asked why he did dig between most rounds, he replied "to make my legs lazy."

Fearful Beating
Jackson took a fearful beating although there wasn't much visible damage afterwards. He had bled from the nose and had been puffed around the eyes.

It was his second loss to Patterson and his second defeat via a technical knockout. Nino Valdes stopped him on the automatic three-knockdown rule July 14, 1954. His record is 29-6-1. Patterson, a Brooklynite whose family now lives at Mt. Vernon, N. Y., has a 32-1 record including 23 knockouts. His defeat was a disputed eight-round loss to former light heavy champion Joey Maxim.

The promotion by dress manufacturer Emil Lence was a well run affair although no financial bonanza. It was the first heavyweight title fight staged by an independent since the International Boxing Club, ruled a monopoly by a federal judge, was formed in 1949.

Spoiled By Weather
Lence said he may have made a "small profit" although his staff announced only the overall crowd figure of 18,101 including non-payers. The radio-TV sponsor paid $175,000 and the gross gate may have hit $180,000. On this basis, Jackson received about $64,800. Patterson's guarantee was $175,000.

"The most important thing is that we've established a beachhead," said Lence, who hopes to promote weekly network TV fights this fall.

The gate was hurt by rain in the suburbs and threats of rain all day in the big city.

"I'm satisfied," said the diminutive promoter after making his giant step.

Team One vs. Team Two

Bill Yingling was outstanding Monday night as he handed defending county champion, Dean Ford, his first defeat of the season in an all-winning effort and Bill Coston added two game victories as Team Five concluded its season with a 5-4 victory over Team Three in a Community Horseshoe League tilt Monday evening on the VFW courts.

Pitching 45 per cent ringers, Yingling defeated Ford, Albert Plank and "Brownie" Munshour to pace his team to victory. The game with Ford was a thriller, Yingling finally winning 52-48 after a 48-48 tie. Each tossed 32-ringer, for a 47 per cent average. Coston lost only to Ford in a game shortened by the rainstorm and had a 33 per cent average for the evening's play. Albert Plank, with 24 percent, and Munshour with 18, were each winner of one game for Team Three.

A large crowd is expected Thursday night when Team One opposes Team Three. A victory for Team One would mean the league title.

Public Instruction listing the actual amounts bid as the amounts to be expended. The state had previously approved a PIBB-40 form calling for estimated expenditures totaling $370,000. While all action must await final approval by the state of the PIBB-40 form it was expected that the approval would be quickly forthcoming, according to reports at the meeting.

There were four bids submitted for the general contract: five each for the other contracts.

The base bids by the other bidders were: General contract, McCoy Brothers, Mt. Holly Springs, $229,900; C. M. Gross, $262,370; Gettysburg Construction Co., $244,600; plumbing, G. L. While the action Monday night formally brought the new joint system into existence, and set the stage for the construction of an addition to the York Springs School, the new jointure has been operating informally for about a month after a meeting at which the acting principal, Rev. Amos Meyers was authorized to secure teachers and take such steps as needed to get the school system into operation in September. Under the program set up by the jointure both York Springs and East Berlin High Schools will be operated this year. Both high schools in due course will become elementary centers when a new high school building can be constructed somewhere between York Springs and East Berlin.

ROBERTS COULD GET PENNANT FOR PHILLIES

CHICAGO (AP)—Robin Roberts is back on the beam and his revival could push the Philadelphia Phillies to a pennant in the tight National League race.

Roberts hurled a four-hit, 6-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday to keep the Phils two games behind Milwaukee's league-leading Braves.

It was Robin's 187th major league triumph but only his eighth against 13 setbacks in what has been the roughest season of his career. It was his first shutout in more than a year.

"Same Pitching" asked Roberts, 30, after the game. "I didn't pitch this one any differently than I have several others this season. Sure, I was lucky. I won. I could have won some of those other games too, but I wasn't as lucky as I was against the Cubs."

One of the big reasons for the "fuss" was the fact that Robin didn't serve a home run ball. This was the first time in his last 13 starts that Roberts hadn't thrown the gopher ball. Roberts has been clipped for 29 homers this season, 10 of which have beaten the right-hander.

"It was Roberts' best game of the year," said Manager Mayo Smith. "No question about it. And nobody ever made a scale big enough to weigh its importance to us at this time."

Throws Good Curve

Pitching coach Whitlow Wyatt said "Roberts' curve ball was the difference mainly because he was throwing it like he used to: overarm with plenty of zip behind it." All of the Phillies agreed Roberts' revival could mean the pennant for them. Third baseman Willie Jones put it this way: "Who else in the league has a Roberts to pitch for? He was our guy when we won in 1950, and he's still our guy in this bid—and he's a pretty good guy to have going for you."

The American Legion and Cities Service battled to a 5-5 eight-inning stalemate in the Big Little League Monday evening, rain and darkness halting activity. A large crowd attended. According to league rules, the same teams will meet tonight for their all-important game in the scrap for first place.

Cities Service led 4-3 going into the final frame but in the top of the seventh Sprinkle homered for the Legion to knot the count at 4-4. Both teams scored in the eighth, three errors permitting Solomon to score or the Legion. In the last of the inning Romanus Gastley walked and raced all the way home from first base on Eddie Gastley's single.

All managers and directors are to attend the league meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Eagles home when an all-star team will be selected, plans made for the Rickie Veikert Memorial Series and other business transacted.

Temperature Was 102
Jackson's temperature was 102 when admitted, but subsided later to near normal.

Asked whether the 25-year-old fighter was mentally alert, doctors said he was under medication.

They undertook a series of chemical, X-ray and microscopic tests to pin down the exact nature of his ailment and the possible cause.

Dr. George Erickson, assistant superintendent of the hospital, said the ailment was marked by blood in the urine.

"He had, of course, signs of being in the fight, but it wasn't any head injury that brought him here," the doctor said.

To a question whether the ailment might have been caused by punches to the kidneys, doctors said they did not know.

Pulse Was 74
Neither would they say whether the ailment might have had its inception prior to the fight.

When examined at noon yesterday in preparation for the fight, Jackson's pulse was 74 at

Baby Girl Rescued From Old Well After 4-Hour Battle To Save Girl From 40-Foot Hole

ANDERSON, S.C. (AP) — "We oughta everyone give a big cheer for God right now!" shouted someone in the crowd.

The crowd roared in agreement as a weary man climbed out of the 40-foot well shaft holding a grimy baby in his arms.

"She's okay," he yelled. But for four terrible hours last night, no one could be sure 17-month-old Yvonne Beasley would come out alive. Her 3-year-old brother Richard David wept with his parents, begging for his sister to come out of the hole.

Alarm By Brother
"That's all he kept saying the whole time," Mrs. J. B. Beasley said today. "He just kept crying and saying, 'I want my sister out of the hole.'"

Richard and his chubby, brown-haired, blue-eyed sister were playing in the yard yesterday evening while their mother fixed supper.

"Richard came running in the house crying, 'Sister fell in the hole and got hurt,' the 28-year-old mother said.

Heard Child Crying
"I ran out, but I never thought of the old well pipe. It's away from the house and covered with a bucket held down by a 12-pound stone. I ran right past it.

"I ran into the front yard and then back again and then I heard her crying and calling 'Mommy, mommy, mommy.'"

"I ran out in the road and tried to stop a car. We don't have any phone and there aren't any neighbors close. I ran and screamed but nobody would stop. I guess they thought it was some family fight.

"Cried The Whole Time"
"Finally, after about 20 minutes a car stopped and a woman got out and came with me. Her husband went to phone the firemen. "We ran to the well, but I couldn't even see Yvonne. But I could hear her crying. She cried the whole time."

The Beasleys live about seven miles from town on a little road off the highway. The young mother was alone because her husband was going to a GI class at the Anderson High School. He was summoned home.

"Smiled And Smiled"
The child was wedged almost at the bottom of the narrow drill pipe of the old well. Doctors supervised piping oxygen to her while drilling experts bored a parallel well 40 feet deep and removed a section of pipe and an old bucket stuck in the pipe joint to reach her.

The rescue here was similar to that of 7-year-old Benny Hooper, Manorville, N.Y., who was trapped near the bottom of a 24-foot well shaft in the back yard of his Long Island home for 23½ hours last May 16-17. Oxygen was pumped down to him during his long ordeal as rescue workers dug a parallel shaft and then cut through to him. Benny suffered only minor injuries.

Mrs. Beasley said she thought some older children may have removed the heavy stone.

"The man who rescued her said she just grabbed his neck and smiled and smiled," Mrs. Beasley said, her voice still trembling with strain.

Officials reported the money was placed in the safe and the fire house was locked about 11 p.m. Sunday.

First word of the robbery came from Arthur Deiter of East Stroudsburg who found a State Agriculture Dept. truck parked in the middle of a side road about 3 miles from town early yesterday.

He told state police he heard what sounded like a .22 caliber rifle fired in the woods nearby and on investigating found the open safe in a creek. Nearby was an acetylene torch, an oxygen cylinder and some scattered change.

Door Jammed
Meanwhile, firemen reported a side door to the fire house had been jammed and the safe was missing along with the truck, which was normally garaged overnight in the fire house.

State police also reported hearing from nearby Mountain Home, Pa., that Robert Ziegler's garage had been broken open and an oxygen cylinder and torch were stolen.

An intensive search of the wooded area failed to produce any more clues, Sgt. Carson Overgard of the Mt. Pocono state police substation, who is in charge of the investigation, reported last night.

TRADING IS QUIET
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market eased in quiet early trading today.

Pivotal stocks took losses of from fractions to a point but there was a scattering of small gainers.

The lower tone was established in a fairly active opening. Prices continued about the same as turnover slackened.

The market showed no signs of a comeback after yesterday's sell-off, the sharpest in a half year. Once again, the decline was general but light trading gave the move no emphasis.

FATE OF TRIAL AMENDMENT UP TO 6 SENATORS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A half dozen undecided senators were reported today to hold the fate of the proposed jury trial amendment to the administration's civil rights bill.

An intense struggle behind the scenes to enlist this small, undecided bloc was paralleled by efforts of the amendment's opponents and its supporters to marshal their full strength when a showdown vote comes—possibly not for several days.

As an indication of the uncertainty about the outcome, a coalition of the civil rights bill's backers won a promise from Sen. Payne (R-Maine), who has been ill in Maine, to fly to Washington to cast his vote against the jury trial proposal.

Seek Fate
On the other hand, supporters of the amendment hoped that Sen. Bridges (R-NH), who has been recuperating in New Hampshire from an illness, might be well enough to be on hand and might cast his vote with them. Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, has made no public commitment on the jury trial proposal.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, said he hopes to get the Senate to lay aside the civil rights bill temporarily to work on other unfinished business.

Senators O'Mahoney (D-Wyo), Kefauver (D-Tenn) and Church (D-Idaho) have proposed a civil rights bill amendment which would provide for jury trials in criminal contempt cases growing out of alleged interference with voting rights.

Opposes Clause
It is broad enough to guarantee such trials for defendants in any type of case in which a court intends to punish a defendant who originally violated its order even if he later signified he would comply with the decision.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) listed President Eisenhower as opposed to insertion of this clause in the bill.

Sen. Eastland (D-Miss), supporting the amendment as a means of diluting the over-all authority of the civil rights bill, predicted "an extremely close vote" on the issue.

Because the situation was so uncertain, neither side was willing to name publicly members they regard as undecided.

"Stand Fast"
Sen. Javits (R-NY) called on supporters of the bill to "stand fast and tell our opponents we will retreat no more—that we will stand united against further parliamentary gimmicks to split us up."

Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) said he had not been able to find any labor leaders who were backing the amendment, despite Johnson's contention last week that union chieftains were behind the O'Mahoney-Kefauver-Church proposal.

Clark said that while he had thought he might support some form of amendment, he now plans to vote against it.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), who voted with the Senate majority to strip from the bill a section to provide powers for fed-

CORPORAL FACES COURT MARTIAL

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Marine corporal from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., is to face a general court martial on charges of mistreating prisoners at the naval air station here.

The Navy said yesterday it hoped to call the case of Cpl. Eugene W. Osick for trial between Aug. 12 and 19. Attorneys for Osick said, however, they didn't see how they could study the five volumes of its title of "world's longest super-highway system" on Aug. 21, when a 41-mile strip of the Erie section will be opened.

The thruway authority announced the official opening date today. Opening of the new, four-lane stretch between Silver Creek and the Pennsylvania state line will boost the thruway's total operating mileage to 474.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike overtook the thruway last year with new construction that raised its total mileage to 454.

A thruway spokesman said the New York superhighway will "take the lead to stay." When completed in 1960, the thruway system will stretch a total of 562 miles.

The remaining 30 miles of the Erie section, between Silver Creek and Buffalo, are under construction and scheduled for completion next year.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard Norman Meyer, 47, a career diplomat who began his government service in 1941 with the wartime Federal Bureau of Censorship, died yesterday. He was first secretary of the American legation in Budapest until last December when he returned to the United States because of his failing health. He was born in San Francisco.

BALTIMORE (AP)—John D. Little, 78, associated with theaters in New York and Baltimore for more than 60 years, died yesterday. He was manager of Ford's Theater in Baltimore from 1936 to 1956.

Testimony to be ready by that time.

Osick is the first of 10 men cited for discipline and the first of four ordered before a general court martial in the case.

The charges against him specify that Osick reportedly struck an Army prisoner in the stomach with his fists; forced two Navy airmen to beat each other in the stomach; forced nine Navy men and a Marine to double time for "a lengthy period" in the brig bull pen; did not report a Marine sergeant who allegedly struck prisoners and didn't report the same sergeant who allegedly required prisoners to run for an excessive period of time.

COURT REVOKES MILK DECISION

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County Court has revoked an order by the State Milk Control Commission fixing premium minimum producer prices for golden guernsey milk.

The decision was handed down yesterday in the suit by the Pennsylvania Holstein Assn., which contended the guernsey price fixed by the commission set up a classification of producers and not of milk.

"We believe the commission order to be unreasonable and not in conformity with law," the court ruled. "It represents a delegation by the commission of its power and duty to regulate the entire milk industry of the commonwealth and to fix prices for milk by requiring a producers' registration with a national breed assn. and by permitting a plus or premium price based on an agreement between dealer and producer alone."

The court held that the Guernsey price "represents special treatment and preference for a small minority of Pennsylvania milk producers at the expense of a vast majority of milk producers in this state, by consequent reduction of the blend price of the latter, and is, therefore discriminatory and violates the principle of uniformity."

SCARBROUGH IN PUBLIC LINKS
PICTURE AGAIN

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—You can't play golf, etc., play golf in Iceland and that is why Bill Scarbrough, the most consistent public links golfer of the past three years, isn't shooting for the qualifying medal in the 32nd Public Links Championship.

But if he manages to land among the 64 who will start match play tomorrow, Bill still may be a serious contender.

Scarbrough, who has gone to the quarter-finals or beyond for the past three years, shot a 79 in the first half of the 36-hole qualifying test over the short but troublesome Hershey Park course yesterday.

Nine strokes off the even-par pace set by three other oddly assorted players, he is in danger of failing to make the qualifying grade. Indications are that 36-hole totals of about 154 will be required to qualify for match play. Scarbrough's plight is one indication of the strange things that take place in the pay-as-you-play championship.

Runner-up Last Year

A Navy career man since 1941, the tall, cigar-smoking chief from the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Station spent the spring season in Iceland. He was out with a patrol squadron until April 1 and when he returned most of the tournaments in Florida were over. He played in only one tournament before this one.

Scarbrough was runner-up to James (June) Buxbaum in last year's Publix Championship, losing 1-2.

City, Md. Their catch included blue fish and flounders in addition to a seven-foot, 65-pound Marlin.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert O. Gordon, Prince St., were Mrs. Gordon's brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Lentz, Rousesville.

Personal Items

Joseph H. Groce, Selmsgrove, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Groce, near town. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Groce and son, Elmer Jr., also of Selmsgrove, spent the weekend at the Groce home.

Miss Evelyn C. Altoff and her aunt, Miss Annie Altoff, E. King St., have returned home after spending several days with the latter's sister, Sister Marina, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair A. Beamer and children, JoAnn and Jay, Prince St., spent the weekend in Hancock, Md., visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stanley and family and with other relatives and friends. They also spent some time in Berkley Springs, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Rudisill and children, Jack and Marianne, E. Myrtle St., and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lonce, Hagerstown, have returned home from a ten-day vacation trip to Port Hamlin, Point Comfort, Mich., which they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rudisill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bankert and children, Sylvia and Brian, Murfreesboro, Tenn., and Mrs. Bankert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Hawk, Silver Run, visited with relatives in the community on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gabbard and children, Barbara, Patsy and Jean, returned to their home in Connersville, Ind., after visiting with her sister, Mrs. Elmer Coulson, and family and other relatives.

The York Springs 4-H Home Economics Club held a regular meeting recently at the home of Donna Gembe with their local leader, Mrs. Melvin Prosser, and nine members present. The 4-H members plan to attend the 4-H Day Camp today at the South Mountain Fairground. The next meeting will be held at the home of Yolanda Golden. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Miss Linda Jo Gerber, Lemoyne, spent a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Coulson.

William Coulson accompanied Orrie Neville to his home at Broad Top, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Delp and son, Frank, have returned to their home in Winter Garden, Fla., after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Delp and Mrs. Bruce Group. Tony and Barbara Barriga, Gettysburg, and Barbara's houseguest from Washington, D.C., recently visited their grandmother, Mrs. Q. W. Hershey.

Pfc. Richard Decker, Camp Lejeune, N.C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Decker.

The Young Adult Sunday School class (Crusaders) of the York Springs Methodist Church cancelled last week's meeting.

The following persons attended the Dahr reunion held at Willow Mills Park: Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCauslin and sons, Gerald and Freddy; Mr. and Mrs. John Brough and sons, Dale and John Jr.; Misses Ada, Naomi and Goldie Brough, of York Springs R. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shelly and two children, of Dillsburg R.D.

Pvt. George Fahnestock completed his basic training and spent his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fahnestock Sr., Dillsburg, and his wife, the former Phyllis Beaverson, Hampton. He will return to Fort Knox, Ky.

Over 70 persons enrolled from eleven states recently for a course on The Organization and Administration of Homes for the Aging held at Dillsburg. The group toured Maslands and the four Cumberland Valley Presbyterian Homes having supper and evening entertainment ing 3 and 2. The year before he was a quarter-finalist and in 1954 he lost in the semifinals. No other player in recent years has gone so far for three years straight.

One of the first day leaders is Frank Gacek, Parama, Ohio, who shot par figures of 35-35-70 over the pesky little 6,055-yard course. Craig Olson, a 30-year-old algebra teacher from Lakewood, Calif. and George Roney, 39, Pittsburgh, a parttime driver for a meat packing company, tied with Gacek for the first-round lead at 70.

at Kings Gap. They visited also Hershey and Gettysburg. Mrs. June Rhoads, York Springs, has worked for Rev. William T. Swain Jr., executive secretary of the seven Presbyterian Homes of Central Pennsylvania for almost five years. Mrs. Martha Blanchard, Dillsburg also is employed there.

Trostle, were united in marriage on July 12 in the York Springs Methodist Church at 7 p.m. by the bride's pastor, Rev. Amos D. Meyers. The double ring ceremony was used. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Prosser were the attendants. Mrs. Miller wore a powder blue street-length dress with hat to match and white accessories. She carried a Bible and white flowers. They were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Prosser in Harrisburg following the wedding and then left for a short wedding trip to the Poconos. They are now residing in their newly built home in York Springs.

SHAPIRO CUTS TO MEET BUDGET

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Harry Shapiro looked today to sharp reductions in maintenance outlays at every institution under his department in order to meet budget reductions made by the Legislature.

Shapiro said each institution must "operate on a sharply reduced budget" regardless of its own appropriation. He asserted that action by the Legislature had left the department 32 million dollars short of its needs and that a sacrifice in the physical plants of the institutions was the only recourse.

The secretary outlined the action he was asking his administrators to take after completing a tour of 25 mental health hospitals and other institutions.

Cut By Legislature

"Cuts should be made only in those activities which do not directly affect the patients, namely maintenance, equipment, capital expenditures, care of the grounds etc.," he said in a statement yesterday.

Burke To Play
For Ryder Cup

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Jack Burke Jr. heads the list of 10 U. S. golf professionals named to play the British in the Ryder Cup matches Oct. 4-5.

Others selected by the Professional Golfers Assn. yesterday were Hebert, Dow Finsterwald, Ed Furgol, Fred Hawkins, Dick Mayer and Art Wall Jr.

Granting that this is foolish economy in the long run, there seems to be no choice but to sacrifice the physical plants to the care of the patients.

Shapiro's departmental budget request originally was 171 million dollars. This was reduced in the governor's budget to 157 million and by the Legislature to 149 million.

Burke is on the team for the fourth time, more than any other member. Ted Kroll will be playing for the third time. Doug Ford and Tommy Bolt will make their second appearance.

Others selected by the Professional Golfers Assn. yesterday were Hebert, Dow Finsterwald, Ed Furgol, Fred Hawkins, Dick Mayer and Art Wall Jr.

WASHINGTON (AP)—If there is a London explosion it will be the disarmament talks blowing up. The United States and Russia—while their representatives in London have talked about disarmament five months—have been building up their armaments.

This, at least, is a tribute to their suspicion of each other. It is against this background of suspicion—and getting ready, just in case—that the talks have been held, along with Britain, France and Canada.

Not Much Optimism

It hardly makes for optimism about the outcome of the talks. There isn't much.

Now Secretary of State Dulles has gone to London for a personal look although Harold Stassen, the American representative, has been keeping this government informed. Dulles made the trip on orders from President Eisenhower.

Seek Mutual Trust

Officials here said Dulles will decide whether to continue the Bevenour, Paul Bunty, Robert Kress, Clarence J. Krichen Sr., Harold Krichen, Bernard Kuhns, Earl E. The annual basket picnic of the Sunday School of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., will be held on Saturday at Caledonia State Park. Each family should take a basket lunch for the noon meal.

A brief business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, will be held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the church. Plans will be made to serve a roast chicken and ham supper at the annual picnic on Saturday, August 10.

talks or call them off.

If for no other reason than world opinion, Dulles may want the talks to go on so long as the Russians are willing to talk or listen.

In the end, therefore, the talks may wind up in a whisper.

Stassen hasn't actually been talking about any major disarming of this country. In a speech last week Dulles made it plain this country would keep its nuclear weapons.

Stassen has been talking about early first steps to build up some mutual trust like a suspension of nuclear tests and aerial and ground inspections.

Dulles last week even talked about opening the entire continental United States to inspection if the Russians would do the same with Russia.

Russians May Say No

This is going pretty far. And it would be a long way off in the future. And when Dulles said that, he didn't know whether Congress would ever approve of a plan like that.

Any Agreement with Russia

such as another Dulles proposal on starting off with inspection limited to the Arctic Circle—would be thoroughly examined by Congress.

And Congress won't be able to do a thorough job until it returns in 1958. So any agreement could

LEOPOLD WILL LEARN TODAY ABOUT PAROLE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Nathan Leopold, a prisoner of his kill-for-a-thrill experiment since 1934, learns today whether he may become a free man this year.

The judge who ordered him put away for 96 years said he hoped that Leopold's sentence was one for life and that there would be "no parole."

Leopold, now 52, with 33 years of experience as a model convict, is seeking his freedom on the ground that he has been rehabilitated.

Asks For Mercy

An educator and onetime guinea pig of prison malaria experiments Leopold says, "I ask not for justice, but for the mercy I did not show."

His answer hinges upon the accuracy of his record.

But Dulles—just as Stassen before him—made proposals so hedged around with conditions that the Russians may say no anyway.

tion of Gov. William G. Stratton in response to Leopold's plea for a second reduction of his sentence.

Leopold was 19 when he and Richard Loeb, also 19, entered the penitentiary at Joliet for the slaying of Bobby Franks, 14-year-old son of a wealthy Chicago neighbor.

Loeb Is Dead

Loeb is dead, knifed by a fellow convict he outraged in 1936.

Leopold, a model prisoner, was granted a cut in his sentence to 85 years in 1949 by former Gov. Adlai Stevenson for serving, with other convicts, as a guinea pig in wartime tests of experimental malaria drugs.

He asked the parole board July 9 to recommend a further reduction of his term to 64 years—which would make him eligible for release Dec. 11 this year under the penal provision which sets one half of the total term plus 15 months for prisoners with good records.

Leopold, his health but little impaired by chronic diabetes, has carved an unusual career within the limitations of his prison environment.

Classed as a brilliant student by alienists at his trial, he had won a bachelor of science degree from the University of Chicago at 18. In prison, he has pursued his studies independently.

With Loeb, a few years after

THREE ITALIAN SISTERS MAKE FASHION HITS

By CELE WOHL
The Associated Press

ROME (AP)—A small town girl stood bag in hand at the railway station of the Italian cheese city of Parma at the end of the war. The first train that passed was headed south.

That chance, and a 20-pound bag of potatoes, founded one of Rome's most brilliant fashion houses of modern times.

The girl with the big ambition and the potatoes was blonde Zoe Fontana.

Three Fountains

She and her sisters, petite Nicol and hard-working Giovanna, have they were imprisoned, he organized a prison correspondence school which is well rated academically. He organized and expanded the prison library. He has held most of the inmate jobs requiring brain work at Stateville, including operation of the hospital X-ray laboratory, and correspondence in the administrative office.

become known as "The Three Fountains of Rome."

Out of a length of cloth that Zoe got by swapping the potatoes, in the post-war chaos when food would get you more than money, the three sisters built their house of high fashion.

They came from generations of Italian dressmakers, up near Parma. But it wasn't until the war-end days of courage, risk and potato-swapping that they decided to try their fortune in the big city.

Their dresses now are worn by royalty and celebrities. They have designed for Princess Maria Pia of Savoy, Margaret Truman, Myrna Loy, Linda Christian and Ava Gardner.

Zoe and Nicol do most of the designing, and tiny Nicol, who speaks the best English, makes the trips to America to handle Fontana affairs there. Giovanna is usually in the back room, handling the business affairs of the "Three Fountains."

Actually there are five fountains, if you count Mamma and Zoe's daughter Gigliola.

Mamma Amabile (lovable) Fontana flutters about the background with a watchful eye on the little corps of seamstresses who stitch the gowns.

And Gigliola is coming up long-legged and eager from school. She is already trying her hand at designs for the teen-age trade.

More Falls And Accidental Deaths Occur In Bedrooms

The most dangerous spot in the American home isn't the bathroom, as you may have heard, but the bedroom.

Nearly a third of all accidental home deaths occur there, a survey by the National Safety Council shows.

"Falls are the main hazard in bedrooms," said Ralph Kuhl, assistant director of the Council's home safety division. "And four out of five falls there aren't from ladders, or down stairs, but tumbles on the same level."

"Take a look at your bedroom. Is there a hassock placed dangerously in a traffic lane? Are clothes or shoes strewn on the floor? If not, then you're to be congratulated on being near to money."

Main Cause Of Death
Kuhl set down the main causes of bedroom deaths in this order: (1) falls, (2) fire, (3) poisoning (more in a bedroom than any other room), (4) choking on food, (5) poisonous gases such as carbon monoxide, and (6) firearms.

"Twice as many persons are shot accidentally in their bedrooms than in any other room in the house," he said. "The reason? The 'unloaded' gun in the closet or dresser drawer."

Another reason falls are the No. 1 killer in the home, he said, is the throw rug—a lethal weapon if unanchored.

"The ideal spot for a throw rug is right beside a bed—if you want an accident," said Kuhl. "Put a non-slip backing on it."

A handy bed lamp would cut down on the night-time toll from falls, Kuhl said.

To reduce the fire death too, don't smoke in bed and install an extension telephone in the bedroom. It's a real lifeline to the local fire department," he said.

Fledgling Writers Have Active Season

NEW YORK (AP)—The New Dramatists Committee, Broadway's own project to aid and abet young playwrights, reports "highly gratifying" results from its eighth season of activity just completed.

George Hamlin, executive secretary, said ND members completed 54 scripts, are working on 68 others. Six plays by active and alumni ND Dramatists reached Broadway and two others had off-Broadway productions. Eighteen other dramas and comedies are on option to producers.

Eleven shows are scheduled for professional productions in the near future in Europe and South America.

Song Man Is Busy Man With Many Activities

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Loesser, one of Broadway and Hollywood's busiest composer-lyricists, is a very incorporated man.

The head of the Frank Music Corp., Frank Distributing Corp., and Frank Publishing Corp., has now set up Frank Productions, Inc., for staging a musical "When in Rome."

The company insists there has been no decision yet on whether Loesser or someone else will be assigned to do the tunes and words.

You can substitute orange juice for the vinegar or lemon juice called for when you are preparing Harvard beets.
